Hollywood Florida Food Tour... A Foodie Fantasy

Hollywood Florida Food Tour Munches On!

Founder and tour guide extraordinaire, Steve Cabeza, continues to please foodies with easy-walking culinary feasts and new restaurant options. Hundreds of delighted foodies have trekked to downtown location on the tour since it was introduced in 2022. Steves business has continued to grow into a magnet for fine food aficionados from around the world. It is an insider's VIP pathway to Hollywood's tastiest eateries.

All of the tour restaurant chefs have the perfect recipe for making the tour experience special. They serve up dishes and samplings not usually on the menu and reserved for tour diners.

Food lovin', fun lovin' folks who live to eat. Steve's guests are adventurous and willing to try new dishes. Steve tells everyone to "arrive hungry"!

All tour restaurants are in the downtown Hollywood district.

The Greek Joint

Touring vegan Sherrie Pisetzky loved The Greek Joint's Eggplant 'Meatball', served with tomato basil sauce and a side of homemade, Truffle Ricotta cheese. "The flavors are mouth-watering," Sherrie said. "The Greek Joint is like being in your living room with family and friends. The atmosphere and the service is definitely a cut above. I'm from Hollywood and the Food Tour has opened me up to trying some amazing foods from different restaurants I didn't even know the tour existed. It's a great and different experience rather than sitting at one place."

left) from Texas. They loved their first tour so much, they came back for an encore with Steve and a wild and crazy group at ChileLimon Mexican Peruvian Fusion.

"Everywhere we've gone with Steve, the food has been really good," said Texas visitor, Terry Holland. "I've had some dishes that I normally would never try. Chilelimon Fusion was probably my favorite stop."

Gioia Eats

Time to toast an amazing time at Gioia Eats. Gioia is a tasteful Italian restaurant with pizza and seafood to die for. Gioia also features a great 4-7 p.m. Happy Hour with great drinks and food items.

Gioia's new Scrocciarella pizza is paper thin, crunchy and melts in your mouth!

Dos Pecados

Recently added to the Tour is Dos Pecados. Owned by Columbian couple, Christian and Francys Fragozo, they feature outstanding Mexican / Hamburger fusion that is tasty and affordable.

Open just a few months, their concept is a nice addition to the Hollywood Food Tour's line-up. Christian has created some new menu items that have garnered foodie attention. The Two Cheese Loaded Burger featuring caramelized onions and Christian's secret sauce along with his popular Birria Taco, filled with a spicy marinated beef stew, are just two of his tasty offerings

Christian is optimistic about Dos Pecados' future. "We are getting new folks coming in all the time. Being a part of Steve's tour is a great way for us to show off our restaurant to new customers."

Steve's tour fits everyone from couples to large friends and family groups, both locals and tourists. Dania Beach's Linda Kilmer sees it as a wonderful opportunity to bring friends together. "Steve has many different restaurants he chooses from," Linda said. "You can do the tour a number of times and have a completely different experience each time." Linda's friend, Diana, chimed in. "After 30 something years in this area, not one of those restaurants had I ever been to. The selections at every restaurant varied and everything was absolutely delicious and the recognition by the owners and chefs as we walked in made us feel special, like participating in an event created just for you." Linda husband, Ken, added, "We've already been back to two of the restaurants with friends. Everybody has been impressed with the Food Tour's service, the food and the ambiance."

The popular five restaurant tour, uniquely customized with multiple courses of special chef samplings, tapas and appetizers, is $89 per person, plus drinks and tips. Not a high price to pay for such an unforgettable experience.
